Anita H. Kiehl-Quarles, CPA is a partner of Malone & Bailey, P.C., a full service accounting and consulting firm committed to delivering high-integrity compliance services that provide her clients increased peace of mind. Anita brings over 17 years of combined public and private company auditing and management experience, beginning her career in public accounting at Deloitte & Touche and eventually owning and operating her own small business in Houston. In addition, as a Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President of Finance and Administration for an internet start-up broadcasting media services company, Anita coordinated internal and external budget and forecasting models as well as outside private equity and debt funding in the amount of $12 million.

As a previous Corporate Controller of an IT consulting firm, Anita's role included consolidating revenue of $75 million, preparing and filing all SEC-required forms, assisting with the IPO process, and developing efficient business processes. Anita has experience in a variety of industries, both well-established and "start-up" businesses, including construction, technology, broadcasting, manufacturing and SAP consulting services. She applies her accounting and business acumen and her wealth of knowledge in the small business sector to help her clients achieve success while dealing with today's business realities and challenges.

Anita earned both her Bachelors Degree in Business Administration and Masters Degree in Accounting from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, American Women's Society of Certified Public Accountants and serves on the board of the Grace School Parent's Club as past president.
