MaloneBailey, LLP Announces Participation in the 2010 Houston Corporate Games

Houston, TX, April 15, 2010 - MaloneBailey, LLP, a market leading, full service accounting firm based in Houston, Texas, has announced its participation in the 2010 Houston Corporate Games.

The Houston Corporate Games provides a friendly, inter-company competition for employees of all fitness levels. Proceeds from the event benefit the Houston Parks and Recreation Department's ASK Program, which provides scholarships and resources to assist young people in the pursuit of higher education and/or to help them improve their current academic standing. More than $65,000 has been given to youth ages 13-18 for scholarships, tutoring, college and career fairs since 2000.

Approximately 50 individuals comprise the MaloneBailey team. As a participant of the event, MaloneBailey has joined the list of companies dedicated to supporting this important program that supports a common desire and commitment to academic success, responsible citizenship and healthy & active lifestyles.

"We are excited to get out in the community and compete with other teams to raise awareness and show our support for this important cause," said Wesley Middleton, Managing Partner at MaloneBailey. Middleton added, "As a firm, we are committed to education and are delighted to participate in an event that promotes this area and encourages Houston's youth to develop their skills for high school and beyond."

The 2010 Houston Corporate Games will be held April 30 and May 1 at Memorial Park.
