MaloneBailey, LLP Announces Corporate Sponsorship of the 2010 Houston International Festival Mayor's Gala

Houston, TX, April 15, 2010 - MaloneBailey, LLP, a market leading, full service accounting firm based in Houston, Texas, has announced its sponsorship for the 2010 Houston International Festival Mayor's Gala.

The Houston International Festival Mayor's Gala is an annual celebration of culture and entertainment that kicks off the International Festival (iFest). This year, The Houston International Festival is spotlighting sights, sounds, and flavors of the Caribbean with the theme of the event being Tropical Treasures - The Caribbean and Beyond. The Mayor's Gala supports the Houston International Festival's arts and education program, which impact approximately 900,000 students at 1,471 campuses in seven Texas counties. Through the Houston International Festival's Teacher's Curriculum Guide, students have the opportunity to learn about the culture and history of the Caribbean. Each year, the Houston International Festival produces a new curriculum that is dedicated to the honored countries of that year's event.

As a sponsor of the event, MaloneBailey has joined the list of companies dedicated to supporting this important program that draws local, national, and international audiences to the greater Houston community. The Houston International Festival is a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization established in 1971.

"We are excited to be a part of this not only fun, but important community event. MaloneBailey and iFest share a common dedication to education, the arts, and international trade & business," said Wesley Middleton, Managing Partner at MaloneBailey.

The 2010 Houston International Festival Mayor's Gala is scheduled for April 15th at the Omni Riverway Hotel. The Houston International Festival is held in downtown Houston from April 17-18 and April 24-25 (Saturdays: noon - 10PM and Sundays: noon - 8PM).
