MaloneBailey, LLP Announces Speech at International PIPES Conference in Shanghai

Audit Partner to Present on Chinese Company Audits

Houston, TX, May 18, 2010 – MaloneBailey, LLP, a market leading, full service accounting firm based in Houston, Texas, has announced its sponsorship of the International PIPES Conference in Shanghai on May 25-26. Furthermore, Audit Partner George Qin will be presenting on common issues related to Chinese company audits and how to select an auditor. Qin’s speech at the conference is scheduled for May 25 at 9 am. The firm is also participating as an exhibitor at the conference.

MaloneBailey specializes in audits of small and medium-sized public companies on United States stock exchanges and has been in the Chinese marketplace for nearly three years assisting Chinese companies and entrepreneurs in the process of going public in the United States. The firm’s clients are currently in 25 states and 8 countries and it ranks in the top 10 firms serving this market in both China and Canada.

The International PIPES Conference focuses on topics of importance to Chinese management teams interested in learning about the U.S. capital markets. A special emphasis will include reverse mergers, registered direct transactions, and other alternative finance techniques.

“As a market leader serving Chinese companies, we are in a position to share our knowledge and experience when it comes to the intricacies and complex issues facing Chinese companies that are public or are going public in the U.S.,” said George Qin, Audit Partner at MaloneBailey. Qin added, “I look forward to sharing my insights on common issues we encounter doing Chinese company audits and what factors Chinese companies should consider when it comes to selecting auditors.”

George Qin, a China native and bilingual in both English and Mandarin, holds a CPA,
