Oil & Gas Tax Expert Joins MaloneBailey, LLP

Holly Zhang Brings Plethora of Experience and Knowledge to Reinforce Accounting Firm's Growing Oil & Gas Practice Area

Houston, TX, July 13, 2010 – Houston-based accounting firm, MaloneBailey, LLP, announced today that Holly Zhang, JD, CPA has joined the firm as an Oil & Gas Senior Tax Manager. Holly's primary role will be to serve oil & gas tax clients of the firm and to focus on the firm's growing oil & gas practice area. MaloneBailey's oil & gas practice has been named a strategic priority.

Holly brings nearly a decade of oil & gas tax expertise, "Big Four" experience, and a swift rise to leadership roles at various Houston firms. Prior to joining MaloneBailey, Holly served as a Senior Tax Manager at Calvetti Ferguson & Wagner as well as a Federal Tax Manager at National Oilwell Varco.

"Holly's in-depth knowledge of oil & gas tax rules and regulations strengthens our ability to continue to grow the oil & gas practice area. Holly's impressive academic background, which includes five degrees and the ability to speak four languages, is an asset to our firm and is demonstrative of the type of talent we look for. On behalf of our team, I welcome Holly to MaloneBailey and look forward to her continued success," said Wesley Middleton, CPA, Managing Partner, MaloneBailey, LLP.

In addition to her abilities as a tax accountant, Holly also possesses skills in the areas of journalism and media and spent time as a reporter for China Daily, a national English language newspaper in China. Holly's professional affiliations include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Texas Bar Association, and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.
